WORKSHOP Part 1 Tuesday 20th October, 12noon - 1pm

Online workshop introducing Now / Next Boards, Weekly Visual Timetables and Personal Planners. Training will also be given to ensure the maximum benefit from using each board, which in turn will improve communication and help bring structure to daily routines.

Following WORKSHOP Part 1, a board of your choice from the three demonstrated, will be delivered to your home address.

WORKSHOP Part 2 Tuesday 17th November, 12noon - 1pm

Follow up online workshop to give further input and ensure maximum benefit is gained from using the boards.

Workshops are led by Neale Hayward-Shott, founder of OurBoards CIC and father of an adult with learning disabilities.

More information and registration is available on Eventbrite

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/i-am-ourboards-parent-carer-workshop-daytime-tickets-122229988185>

The free board is only available to parents/carers if they attend the online workshops, this is to ensure the maximum benefit is gained from the board.

Please do not take a place which could be used by another family if you are not in a position to commit to the workshops.
